

Sabbath, Study, Serve
Taking the Sermon Into Our Week

Scripture of the Week: Isaiah 6: 1-8

From the Sermon:

Isaiah 6 starts out, "In the year that King _____ died."

God is looking for a different type of _____.

Isaiah is a man of " _____ " - in other words he isn't holy enough - and he lives among people who he knows to be just as unholy.

_____ is the setting of call.

When we truly worship God, opening up our spirits - God _____.

For Isaiah, worship involved _____, _____, and _____.

Reflection Questions:

How have you responded in the past to God's call on your life?

What has made it easy or difficult to respond 'yes'?

Prayer:

Lord, for the times we have said 'no 'when you have called us - we ask for your forgiveness. For the times when you have asked 'whom shall I send?' And we have said 'not me. ' - we ask for your mercy. Lord, open up our hearts to your calling, we pray. Amen.
