Taking the Sermon Into Our Week

Scripture of the Week: Joel 2:12-13, 28-29

From the Sermon:

The prophet Joel is writing at a time when a _____ was desperately needed.

“Truly the _____ is great; terrible indeed - who can endure it?”

God continues to _____ people back to himself.

God is inviting us like ancient Israelites to examine our _____.

Advent is also a time to prepare our very selves for when _____.

Advent is a time of reflection, but is also an invitation to _____.

Reflection Questions:

Have you ever asked “how much longer, Lord?”

How has God captured your attention in the past?

How are the prophets connected to the season of Advent?

Prayer:

Lord, we confess that sometimes we think it is everyone else who needs transformed but not us. Forgive us, O Lord, and examine our hearts anew. May we humbly submit to your way and truth we pray. Amen.
