Taking the Sermon Into Our Week

Scripture of the Week: Luke 3:1-22

From the Sermon:

The wilderness is a funny place for John to begin his ministry, but in so many ways to brings the people back to the story of _____.

John is proclaiming this powerful message about repentance and forgiveness of sins, and Luke ties it back to the words from _____.

Again and again and again the people are asking John “_____?”

Repentance isn't just about being sorry; it's about _____.

_____ is not something that is done alone.

Reflection Questions:

How would you define repentance?

How is repentance connected to the way we live?

Prayer:

Lord, we confess that we like the idea of saying “I'm sorry”, but we are slow to live into our words with true change. We don't back up our words, no matter how heartfelt, with action.

Forgive us, O Lord. Call us again and again back to transformation, we pray. Amen.
