

Sabbath, Study, Serve
Taking the Sermon Into Our Week

Scripture of the Week: Daniel 7: 1-18

From the Sermon:

Chapter seven starts a series of four _____ that Daniel has.

The beasts are:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.

As we continue to journey with both the book of Daniel and Benedict on the path of Christian humility, the next step is _____.

The next two steps in humility - silence and dignity - are meant to train us in _____.

Daniel chooses his _____, and guided by God for the sake of God.

The final step of humility is that one bears _____ to God in all things and in all places - whether in prayer, work, service, or study.

Reflection Questions:

Have you ever met someone who truly does not care for their own will to be done? What was that person like?

Do you consider yourself to be a patient person? Why or why not?

Prayer:

Lord, examine my life, my intentions and my heart so that I am aligned with you and your kingdom alone. Amen.
