

Sabbath, Study, Serve
Taking the Sermon Into Our Week

Scripture of the Week: Luke 18:31-19:10

From the Sermon:

_____ is in the tribe of Benjamin – the smallest tribe in all of Israel.

We are told that Zacchaeus is the son of Abraham, a Jew, yet he was collecting taxes for the Romans, a hefty sum - by _____.

Jesus looked up into the tree and said, “Zacchaeus, you better get out of that tree because I _____ stay at your house today.”

Reflection Questions:

Why do you think Zacchaeus wanted to see Jesus?

How do you even prepare to host Jesus in your home?

Who can you identify with in this story?

Prayer:

Lord, we confess that we are often like the crowds - complaining about those you are reaching out to instead of partnering to be part of the work of your kingdom. Forgive us, we pray. Amen.
