

Taking the Sermon Into Our Week

Scripture of the Week: Jeremiah 1:1-10

From the Sermon:

The most often quoted parts of Jeremiah come from _____.

Jeremiah is called to be a _____ with a very difficult message in a very trying time.

People are wrought with _____ about why they cannot follow the path God has laid before them.

When God calls for such a time as this, it should be noted that God's call is not in our _____.

God clearly tells Jeremiah that there was _____ for his life, even before he was born.

Reflection Questions:

What exactly was Jeremiah consecrated to do?

What is God calling you to do?

What keeps coming up even though you try to ignore it? What do you make excuses about not doing?

What did you feel called to when you were younger, that you've given up on?

Prayer:

Lord, release us from all of our excuses that we use when you call us. Allow us to respond, not because of our own confidence in ourselves, but because of our confidence in you alone.
