

Sabbath, Study, Serve
Taking the Sermon Into Our Week

Scripture of the Week: Daniel 3: 1-30

From the Sermon:

Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego refuse to _____ of Nebuchadnezzar.

When Benedict was speaking about the ladder of humility, the third step is _____.

Obedience does not require that we follow what is _____.

We all need people who can _____.

The fourth step of humility is _____ when obedience is difficult.

The fifth step of humility is _____.

Left to our own devices so many of us would never bring our _____ before a holy God.

Reflection:

Who are the godly people in your life that you can seek counsel from?

Would we accept the challenge of obedience to the point where it requires our perseverance or would we give up and give in?

Would we abandon the way of Christ for our own comforts?

Would we let ourselves be brought low so that God can be esteemed?

What does it look like for you to grow in humility?

Prayer:

Lord, teach us how to be obedient to you when it is difficult and to repent when we choose a different way. Amen.
